Dear Acting Attorney General Blanche,

I am an American citizen writing to submit my application for compensation from the $1.776 billion fund your office has established to address grievances against improper targeting by federal employees and agents. Having carefully reviewed the fund's stated purpose — to remedy harm caused by government actors who targeted individuals for political or ideological reasons — I am confident that I qualify and respectfully request that my application receive the full deliberation it deserves.

SECTION II: NATURE OF GRIEVANCE — Check all that apply

☐ I suffered significant, prolonged emotional distress having been present via live television for an attempted overthrow of the United States government on January 6, 2021

☐ I subsequently suffered renewed emotional distress upon learning that the individuals responsible for said attempted overthrow had been granted full pardons on January 20, 2025 and would face no consequences whatsoever

☐ I suffered significant, prolonged emotional distress having lost someone to COVID-19, a loss made more acute by the federal government's catastrophic mismanagement of the pandemic response

☐ I personally survived COVID-19, from which I have not fully recovered, having since been subjected to sustained symptoms including but not limited to loss of smell, debilitating fatigue, brain fog, shortness of breath, heart palpitations, joint pain, post-exertional malaise, and/or the general experience of a body that has not fully functioned correctly since 2020

☐ I have sustained material financial losses as a direct result of tariff policies, the logic of which remains, to this day, unclear to me and most economists

☐ I have sustained significant, ongoing financial harm in the form of elevated gasoline prices directly attributable to the federal government's ill-considered military engagement with Iran

☐ I suffered significant, prolonged emotional distress having witnessed the repeated broadcast of the execution of Renee Nicole Good, a U.S. citizen and mother, killed by a federal ICE agent in Minneapolis on January 7, 2026, across network television, cable television, internet news sites, and/or my social media feed, and subsequently suffered renewed emotional distress upon learning that no agents were charged with a crime

☐ I suffered significant, prolonged emotional distress having witnessed the repeated broadcast of the execution of Alex Pretti, a U.S. citizen and VA nurse, shot 10 times by federal CBP agents while he lay on the ground in Minneapolis on January 24, 2026, across network television, cable television, internet news sites, and/or my social media feed, and subsequently suffered renewed emotional distress upon learning that no agents were charged with a crime

☐ I am a Minnesotan who was specifically and disproportionately targeted by the federal government's Operation Metro Surge, which turned my state into a militarized testing ground for mass immigration enforcement

☐ I have been forced to explain to my children why the president said that ☐ I have been forced to explain to my parents why the president said that ☐ I have been forced to explain to my therapist how I feel when the president said that ☐ I have suffered both emotional and financial harm from stress-eating my way through multiple news cycles, the latter exacerbated by the federally unaddressed rise in grocery costs

☐ I have developed an involuntary flinch response to push notifications

☐ My blood pressure is now a pre-existing condition

☐ I am routinely ambushed on Sunday mornings by a minimum of 70 overnight Truth Social posts from the President of the United States, including grievances against deceased persons, former presidents, demands for foreign territory, and capitalization choices that defy all known rules of grammar

☐ I am a federal employee who has been DOGE'd, RIF'd, or otherwise involuntarily separated from my position by a 22-year-old with a laptop

☐ I am a veteran who did not sign up for this, specifically

☐ I paid taxes that were used for things I find deeply upsetting

△ IMPORTANT: This is a satirical protest document created as an exercise of free speech protected under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution. Form WTAF-8647 is not an official U.S. government form and is not affiliated with, endorsed by, or submitted to the Department of Justice or any federal agency. Completing and mailing this form does not constitute a legal claim for compensation. This is a political protest action only.

We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Aggrieved Americans Relief Act (26 U.S.C. §1776), which is a law we made up — much like the current administration has been making up policy, procedure, and precedent as it goes along, apparently operating under the assumption that the American people will either believe it or go along with it. Or both. Nope. Not even a little.

This form is a satirical protest document. It is not an actual federal form, and completing it will not result in a check, a phone call, a resolution, or any acknowledgment whatsoever from the federal government — which, as you may have noticed, is something of a pattern.

You are not required to apply for relief, but if you wish to register your grievances with the Acting Attorney General of the United States via the U.S. Postal Service, you must provide the information requested. Failure to provide complete information may result in your application being processed with the same urgency, care, and accountability as your original grievance.

The estimated average time to complete this form is however long you have been suffering, plus ten minutes. The cost of participation is the price of a single stamp. The Department of Justice will receive your completed form. What they do with it is, at this point, anyone's guess.
